Nicolette Sarin Promoted to Operations Assistant For CDM Electronics

Turnersville, NJ, April 16, 2018... CDM Electronics has announced the promotion of Nicolette Sarin to Operations Assistant at the Turnersville, NJ, production facility. In this new position Nicolette will assist in the daily operation of CDM's warehouse and production areas to include overseeing the processing of government orders, reviewing and resolving past-due items, preparing improvement-focused performance metrics, and coordinating inter-departmental support of the Operations team. Nicolette joined CDM in 2016 as a Cable Assembler and has constructed cable assemblies, prepared and built injection and tabletop molds, and coordinated team work cells for efficiency by creating time frames, data sheets, and daily routines. Nicolette's extensive and diverse academic achievements include a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and Master of Arts in Teaching, both from Fairleigh Dickinson University. Nicolette was not only a decorated high school athlete but also a two-time All American collegiate athlete. Nicolette is a resident of Sewell, NJ.
